EARNEST TOWN MEETING

UNANIMOUS SENTIMENT FOR MEMORIAL STRUCTURE

Organization Authorized for Work for the Welfare of Gettysburg and Progress.

There have been larger town meetings to consider the matters affecting the welfare of the town but so far the most earnest meeting of the kind held for years came off on Tuesday night of last week in the court house. There were from 60 to 75 men in attendance, and quite a number were earnestly interested in the matter.

The meeting was called to order by H. T. Weaver, outlining the purposes of the meeting to effect an organization to go to work along broad lines, not only for mercantile purposes, but to improve civic conditions and secure if possible, the location of a memorial structure in the town. Mr. Weaver nominated Wm. Arch. McClain to be president of the organization to be formed.

Mr. McClain outlined the possible work of an organization. That if it was the desire of Gettysburg to have a memorial structure located in Gettysburg under the recent act appropriating $150,000 the citizens should unite in order to let their desires be known to those having charge of the matter. That there were mercantile questions which an organization could handle and solve for the benefit of merchants of the town. That there were many civic questions arising upon which the town ought to express an opinion and help to solve. That one of these was the streets of the town, how to make them better and equal of the avenues shortly to surround the town.

A motion was then made by Hon. Wm. H. Tipton and prevailed that an organization be effected and that the President appoint a Board of nine Managers to determine the character of the organization and adopt a constitution.

The organization, its works, dues, etc., were discussed at some length by a number of citizens. J. L. Butt, Esq., D. P. McPherson, Esq., H. T. Weaver, Hon. R. Wm. Bream, Hon. W. H. Tipton, and Capt. Jas. T. Long. All those who spoke were unanimous that it was important to perfect an organization, that there were many matters involving the welfare of the town that could be best advanced by an organization, that it was most desirable to secure the location of a memorial structure in the town, in which to preserve the records, memorials, trophies, and a collection of arms, and accoutrements used by the Civil War soldier. It was urged that the dues of such an organization should be liberal, membership fee of $5 or $10 being suggested, and one speaker thought if it was not possible to find 100 men with enough public spirit so as to give $5 a piece for the purpose, that time was near for building a fence around the town and closing business. The streets of the town were condemned without reservation as a disgrace and the absolute necessity for better streets if the town was to go forward.

The meeting adjourned with the sentiment prevailing that an organization could not too quickly be perfected and get to work.

Wm. Arch. McClain in accordance with the motion adopted at the town meeting has selected the following Board of Managers: J. L. Butt, Esq., Hon. R. Wm. Bream, C. Wm. Beales, Wm. F. Codori, John A. Cox, Hon. D. P. McPherson, E. H. Markley, Hon. Wm. H. Tipton and H. T. Weaver.

The Board of Managers met on Monday evening, all present and organized by adopting a Constitution. The name selected for the organization was Citizens League. John D. Keith, Esq., was elected Secretary Treasurer. The membership fee was fixed at $3 with annual dues of $5. The Board will meet at least once a month, and oftener as may be necessary. The work of the league will be divided among a number of committees, committees will be composed of interested citizens outside of the Board with at least one member of Board on each committee. All expenditures are to be made by the Board and at an annual meeting to elect a President there will be presented to the league an itemized account of all expenditures.

The Board is unanimous in the belief that the time is ripe for the organization and that there is much work for such an organization to do.

Letter to Wm. Steinour.

Dear Sir: Josh Billings never said anything truer than this: "Success do not consist of never making blunders, but in not making the same one twice."

N. R. Watkins, of Lott, Texas, had his house painted some years ago, and it took 13 gallons of what he believed to be paint; he bought it for paint, and it looked like paint, the painter said it was paint.

He has had it painted again; it took 7 gallons of Devco.

It cost $65 before; now $25.

He knows it is painted now, and he's got that $30 in a safe place. He's got his knowledge in a safe place too.

Yours truly,

MYSTERY OF LIFE AND DEATH

AN EXEMPLARY YOUNG MAN VICTIM TO TYPHOID FEVER

Judge McSherry of Frederick Dies Suddenly—A Seminary Student Passes Away.

GLENN E. HESS passed away at his home on Steinwehr avenue on last Wednesday, aged 25 years, 10 months and 6 days. Death was due to typhoid fever. He took a vacation during the summer, visiting Altoona and other places and shortly after his return symptoms of an approaching illness appeared, but Glenn was one of those boys who never want to give up and he continued at his work at the barber shop of H. B. Setton, having learned his trade with Mr. Setton and been with him since 1900. He was finally compelled to give up and was confined to his bed about ten days prior to his death.

Glenn Hess was one of those manly young men, deservedly popular with a good face and had a quiet gentle, a good face and had a quiet genial disposition that won people. He was one of the good young men of the town of exemplary habits, and character above reproach, but he never thrust his goodness forward. He was a devoted son and brother.

He was a member of the Citizens' band, playing a clarinet, ever interested in the welfare of the band. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and the protective association of that order. He belonged to the P. O. S. of A., and was an active member of the Fire Company. His death was a shock to his host of friends, going down in the brightness of young manhood when it seemed a useful and honorable career was ahead, truly one of the mysteries of life.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon, services being conducted by Dr. J. A. Clutz, of St. James' Lutheran church, of which Glenn was a member. The pall bearers were his friends Charles Sheely, Oliver Beidler, Chas. Wills, Fred Harmon, John Colestock and Ernest Harmon. The band attended and on the way to Evergreen Cemetery played Chopin's Funeral March, and at the grave nearer My God to thee. He is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hess, three sisters, Misses Cora and Clara at home and Mrs. Harry Dougherty of Altoona.

Resolutions.

At a regular meeting of Camp No. 414, P. O. S. of A., held Thursday evening, Oct. 24, 1907, the following resolutions were passed on the death of Glenn Hess:

Whereas, An all-wise Providence has permitted the hand of death to remove from our Camp our dear Brother Glenn Hess, and

Whereas, Camp No. 414, P. O. S. of A., in this little tribute of loving remembrance, desires to express appropriate regard and esteem for him as one of our number, and the loss we deplore in his death, be it therefore

Resolved, That in his death our Camp has lost a member who was always interested in the success of the Camp.

Resolved, That in Brother Hess' death our sincere sympathies, although inadequate and ineffective to assuage the sorrow and grief, go out to the bereaved family and devoted friends in this saddest of all dispensations.

Resolved, That a copy of these testimonials of love be sent to the family of our deceased brother, that the same be published, and placed on the minutes of Camp.

Where He was Wounded.

Lieut. Philip Long Houck, of Co. K, 1st Pa. Reserves, now of this place, returned last week from a long contemplated and greatly enjoyed visit in front of Petersburg, Va., the scene of the conflict, in which he was a participant, and where he was severely wounded, forty-five years ago. June 30th, 1862, on the Griffith farm. He was shot in the left arm, leaving a mark very distinctly, which he will bear to the end of his days, and another bullet entered his breast, detaching a rib and passing clear through his body. He fell into the hands of the enemy, who told him that there was no hope of his recovery and took him to Libby Prison. The Lieut. told them that when he got well he was coming back and would show them that he was equal to about five Johnnies. He returned to his famous regiment and did staid service until the end of the War. From his recent visit he brought a cane which he cut in Fort Heli where he fought, also some interesting relics from the Frazer House which stood near the Union position and which was burned last year. He also brought some bunches of peanuts as they were lifted out of the ground on the vines.

—Rev. W. W. Hartman began revival services in the Methodist Church on Monday evening at 7 o'clock continuing every night except Saturday for several weeks.

LET EVERY VETERAN VOTE AGAINST SHEATZ.
Every soldier in Adams county should line up for the defeat of Sheatz. In another column will be found what Wm. Hays Green, a veteran, has to say on the subject. Sheatz, Cochran, a Democrat, introduced a bill in the last legislature to pension veterans of the Civil War living in the state. His bill asked for $1,000,000 to be appropriated for the purpose. Several northern states have provided pensions for their veterans and there were many who believed that the time had come for the richest state in the Union to provide a pension for the veteran. The great Keystone state, without debt, enjoys an enormous state revenue. This income of millions has been the plaything of the most corrupt political machine ever known. When the attempt was made by a Democrat, backed by all the Democrats in the Senate and House, to take from this overflowing treasury a small sum for the veteran, the machine had John O. Sheatz, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, kill the bill. He was chairman of the House Appropriation Committee, and deliberately killed the bill, in effect thereby saving not one cent for the veteran but an overflowing treasury for the machine. We ask every veteran to read Sheatz's legislative record on another page. When the machine wanted offices and salaries created for machine supporters, Sheatz was there every time with his vote to help the machine but when it is proposed to reward patriotic men who saved the State and Nation, he is able to defeat the project, and the money a grateful people would have had the veteran enjoy is retained in a treasury to become possible spoils for the machine. Election day will be the day to square accounts with this man who forgets the services of the veteran, discredits his wounds and dishonors the memory of their dead, by voting against John O. Sheatz.

SHEATZ'S FALSE PRETENSE IS A FATAL MISTAKE

Forced to Vote for Vicious Legislation by His Obligations to Machine.

Grafters Under Indictment as Well as Those Still in Office Working for His Election.—Interesting Rumor of an Anti-Penrose Defection.

(Special Correspondence.)
Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 23.
Posing as morally better than his party John O. Sheatz, the machine Republican candidate for State Treasurer, stands to-day, convicted of falsifying his record in the Legislature, in order to support an absurd claim. Dragoned into voting for the Susquehanna canal bill, he declared, over his own signature, and with manifest deliberation, the other day, that he had voted against that iniquity. There could have been no misunderstanding in the premises. He knew how he had voted and why he voted as he did. His purpose in claiming to have voted the other way was obviously to deceive the public.

A braggart running from an imaginary danger is not an attractive figure. A professor of morality becomes despicable when he is caught in the perpetration of crime. Lying is not a characteristic of honesty. False pretense is not a habit of a man of integrity. John O. Sheatz protesting constantly that he is an honest man has convicted himself of falsification and is entitled only to popular contempt. Moreover his falsehood was malicious as well as deliberate. He aspersed the reputation of others in order to create a false reputation for himself. Everybody despises a malicious liar.

The Penrose machine controls the Republican party in Pennsylvania. It nominated Sheatz because its managers believed that he will serve it in the event of his election. The Penrose machine wants the State Treasury in order to "farm" the patronage of the office. It was one of the most productive of the assets of the machine before Berry was elected. Bankers who are involved will pay anything for funds to tide them over. Frequently if they can't get funds they commit suicide. Penrose likes to hold a lot of bankers in that equivocal position. He can get "money to burn" under such conditions.

Sheatz Under Obligations to the Machine.

No man who is under obligations to such a political combination has strength to resist its importunities. A man with the courage and probity to maintain opposition will not put himself under obligations to that kind of a machine. Sheatz has always been under obligations to "the gang." When he was given the place honored by J. Claude Bedford he mortgaged his manhood. That lightning doesn't strike twice in the same spot, is proverbial. That a political machine doesn't make two mistakes in the same legislative district, is equally certain. In electing a man to humiliate Bedford the machine wouldn't take a man like Bedford. They make certain to get the opposite sort.

It was because of this obligation to the machine that Sheatz voted for the Susquehanna canal bill. He knew that was a vicious measure. He had even declared his intention to vote against it. "While in Philadelphia the day before the bill came up," says the editor of the North American, "he inquired of The North American when it was to be called. Upon learning that the vote would be taken the following day, he canceled an important business engagement and went to Harrisburg specially to do his duty and vote against the measure." Yet when he voted the next day he voted for the bill. The machine managers forced him to "throw conscience to the dogs" and serve, not his party, but the machine.

What absolute folly it is to talk of resisting the machine in a matter in which cupidity has stirred the managers to an acute stage by a man who couldn't withstand it in a trifling affair like the Susquehanna canal bill? An organization which drove Hopkins, Blake, Walters, Clark of the Enterprise bank and others to suicide, worried Norris, Hart and Haywood into premature graves and sent Livesy into exile as a fugitive, is not likely to abandon its most cherished hope because of fear of a man who hadn't the wit to keep his legislative record right or the wisdom to remain silent when his faults were revealed. It would be as safe to hand the treasury over to Huston or Sanderson.

Judged by the Company He Keeps.

If Sheatz had the courage and conscience which is claimed for him, moreover, he wouldn't have the support of the element which is doing most for his success. Every one of the indicted conspirators is working to the full measure of his power to elect Mr. Sheatz. Huston, Sanderson, Snyder, Payne, Cassell and all the capitol grafters are moving heaven and earth in his interest. If he is anxious to prosecute them why are they so urgent for his election? It is not likely that they would prefer to be sent to the penitentiary by Republicans rather than by Democrats. Their partisanship hardly takes that form.

Then the grafters in all the other departments are taxing their energies and taking chances of punishment in order to promote the election of Sheatz. Take the case of John S. Neal, chief clerk of the State Highway Department, for example. Neal is under suspicion and unless the machine is restored to power it will be impossible to retain him in the public service. He is one of those who organized "a bureau of information" in the Highway department three or four years ago, to sell advance information to contractors, to the prejudice of the State. If the Department hadn't been rotten he would have been turned out then.

But he wasn't even rebuked. It has been said that he was obliged to refund some of the money, not by the department, but by his victims. But that rumor has not been verified. He lost no standing among his associates, however. And why should he? The department was organized as a grafting bureau. It was intended as a political machine. It was designed to be a sort of asylum for party pensioners. Besides the vast force of employees in and about the office here, the considerable number of engineers and draughtsmen in the field, there are a number of contractors who employ great armies of men.

Chief Clerk Neal's Hold-Up.

That all of these employees are expected to contribute to the campaign corruption fund is made plain by a "hold-up" letter recently issued to the contractors, inspectors and other employees of the Highway Department by Chief Clerk Neal. "We are raising a fund to assist the Republican State committee in paying the expenses of its present State campaign," he writes to those who are largely dependent upon him for their tenure of office. "Should you desire to make a voluntary contribution for this purpose," he continues, "please forward me a check as promptly as possible."

The Highway Department grafters are alarmed at the prospect of Harman's election. They know that there will be no interruption of work in roadbuilding, for Mr. Harman, in the Legislature and out, is and has been one of the most enthusiastic advocates of good roads. But if he is elected the grafters in the Highway Department will have "troubles of their own." He won't have power to remove inefficient or venal officials or agents of the Department. But he will have the right to compel the fulfillment of the law and the proper performance of the work and every man concerned understands that he will exercise that right.

The other departments are also more or less concerned on the subject. At least the "fat frying" has been extended to all the departments and men are held up for "voluntary" contributions on every part of the "palace of graft," except in the office of the State Treasurer. Chairman Andrews' collectors know that there is nothing to be got there for them and State Treasurer Berry will not indulge in that most contemptible of all forms of robbery. The election of Harman will go a long way toward a stop to that canker in the official life of the Commonwealth.

Rumor of Anti-Penrose Defection.

There is an interesting rumor current in political circles now which has come out of the center of the anti-Penrose Republicans of the State. This force is an important element in the party's voting strength, and it reasons that the easiest and best way to eliminate Penrose from the political equation would be to forget to vote for Sheatz. Penrose nominated Sheatz not out of love for Sheatz but with the idea of promoting his own interests. If Sheatz is elected Penrose will be strengthened because all the patronage of the office, appointments as well as deposits, will be employed in his behalf. The defeat of Sheatz, on the other hand, will not only deprive Penrose of these potent influences, but it will imply condemnation of Penrose's policies and management. Naturally a good many of Penrose's enemies in the party look with favor upon a proposition to adopt this easy way of effacing Penrose.

There is no doubt that the election of Sheatz will make Penrose invincible. Ever since the death of Quay those who are opposed to Penrose have been complaining of his incapacity for leadership and his proneness to blundering. His success in rescuing the organization from desperate situations, however, is a constant refutation of such charges. It may be gravely doubted if Quay could have saved the party last year. It is known that he was irretrievably committed to the nomination of Colonel Watres of Scranton for Governor and Watres would "have been skinned a mile." Quay never encountered such a perilous situation as the capitol scandal put up to Penrose this year. He was equal to the emergency last year and if he succeeds again this year the anti-Penrose element of the party may as well "bag its head."

Penrose's Sufficient Reason.
That is why Penrose nominated Sheatz this year. The voters wouldn't stand for a machine man with "the courage of his convictions." On the other hand Penrose wouldn't stand for an anti-machine man who would not be amenable to orders in the event of his election. Sheatz was the compromise invented by Penrose. He is a machine man in mask. He serves the machine, and, as in the case of the Susquehanna canal bill vote, has the stupidity or inveteracy to deny the fact even though he must have known that the records would reveal his hypocrisy.

Our Nine Days' Wonder.
From the Philadelphia Record.

Nine days have elapsed since Candidate John O. Sheatz calling "The Record" to account for the "extravagant writings, and in many cases absolutely false statements, of men employed for their ability in that line," denied that he had voted for any of the "infamous" water snake bills of the legislative session of 1903.

Nine days have elapsed since this newspaper called the attention of Candidate Sheatz to page 2435 of the Legislative Record, wherein it is officially certified that he did vote for the most infamous of all the water snake bills.
As yet Candidate Sheatz has not contended to explain why he set up a defense that was so easily demolished by reference to his official record. He promised in his letter of denial to "reply to the rest of the misstatements" at his first opportunity. Has he thought better of it? Have the gangsters who are managing his campaign called him off?

The Veterans and the Grafters.
From the Butler Herald.

John O. Sheatz, the Republican machine candidate for State treasurer, offers as an excuse for the vetoing of the soldiers pension bill the statement that it would have cost the State over $4,000,000 a year to pay the pensions to the veterans. Had it not been for the election of William H. Berry it is safe to say the bunch of capitol grafters would have robbed the State of $4,000,000 more in addition to that already stolen and the machine campaigners would now be pointing with pride to the magnificent capitol which WE built and furnished. It costs too much to give the old veterans $10 a month, but an expenditure of millions of dollars for "fake" trimmings is a legitimate expense.

Spell the Name Correctly.
From the Philadelphia Record.

Some of our esteemed county and city contemporaries are in the habit of misspelling the name of the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, Hon. John G. Harman, of Columbia county. It is well enough to be correct. The misspelling of names has sometimes led to grave after-election disputes. Luckily, there is no mistaking of Sheatz for Harman nor of Harman for Sheatz; but it is not well to alter the spelling of either candidate's surname.

Todd Tarries.
From The Harrisburg Patriot.

The Attorney General of the State, who is in charge of the prosecution [of the capitol thieves], is away on his vacation. It was stated at his office yesterday that the date of his return has not yet been fixed.

If the administration is using all energy and diligence to bring the criminals to justice and to recover the stolen money the place for the Attorney General just now is Harrisburg, not the woods of Maine.

Responsibility for the Graft.
From the Reading Telegram.

Can you touch a man who had anything to do with this monumental conspiracy of plunder and betrayal without touching a minion of the Republican state machine, to which Sheatz is indebted for his present nomination?

Must be Plucked Out.
From the Sunbury Democrat.

The long continued system of loot practiced by the Republican leaders in the State must be completely eradicated, or else the fruits of industry will be absorbed in the payment of unearned and unlawful bounties to the corruptionists.

Visits of Americans.
The Northwestern railway in England has constructed a $100,000 special train for the benefit of Americans. It is a fresh indication that England has become their pleasure ground and their custom a source of national wealth.

Dice-Throwing an Old Custom.
"Craps," or throwing dice, is said to have been originally a religious act. In the turn of the dice was supposed by the primitive peoples to be the answer of the gods to their prayers. There was no element of chance involved.

Graduated Plunder.
The rich ought to pay what it costs to defend their liberty and property--no more and no less. The poor ought to pay the same. Justice for both; favor for neither. Graduated plunder is unjust. London Liberty Review.
